

Federal Government Support

for U.S.-based small businesses exporting products and services made in the USA

MISSION

Promoting U.S. exports to foster economic growth and prosperity

Helping Americans to start, build, and grow businesses

Supporting American jobs by facilitating the export of U.S. goods and services

KEY OFFERINGS:

Education for all facets of the exporting process and one-on-one support, such as:

- Trade Counseling
- Market Intelligence & Analysis
- Business Matchmaking

Guidance to help small businesses implement successful export initiatives and access to:

- Loans
- Grants for Export Development
- Business Consulting

Export finance solutions to help U.S. businesses compete internationally and minimize risk, such as:

- Export Credit Insurance
- Working Capital Loan Guarantees
- Foreign Buyer Financing

CONTACT:

Contact a Commercial Service office or learn more at trade.gov

Contact a local SBA office or learn more at SBA.gov/international

Request a consultation to talk to a trade finance specialist

EXIM, the SBA, and the Department of Commerce can be found in one convenient location at U.S. Export Assistance Centers! These centers, or USEACs, are situated throughout the country to offer support directly to businesses currently exporting or thinking about exporting. You can find more information online using the QR code.