

Federal Government Support

for U.S.-based small businesses exporting U.S. products and services

MISSION: Promoting U.S. exports to foster economic growth and prosperity

KEY OFFERINGS: Education for all facets of the exporting process and one-on-one support, such as:

- Trade Counseling
- Market Intelligence & Analysis
- Business Matchmaking

CONTACT: Contact a U.S. Commercial Service office:
trade.gov/commercial-service-offices-us

WEBSITE: trade.gov

Helping Americans to start, build, and grow businesses

Guidance to help small businesses implement successful export initiatives and access to:

- Loans
- Grants for Export Development
- Business Consulting

Contact a local SBA office:
sba.gov/local-assistance/find

SBA.gov/international

Supporting American jobs by facilitating the export of U.S. goods and services

Export finance solutions to help U.S. businesses compete internationally and minimize risk, such as:

- Export Credit Insurance
- Working Capital Loan Guarantees
- Foreign Buyer Financing

Request a consultation to talk to a trade finance specialist:
grow.exim.gov/consultationrequest

exim.gov

More than 100 local offices are ready to help!

EXIM, the SBA, and the Department of Commerce can be found in one convenient location at U.S. Export Assistance Centers! These centers, or USEACs, are situated throughout the country to offer support directly to businesses currently exporting or thinking about exporting.

▶ Scan the QR code to find a U.S. Export Assistance Center near you!